

Environmental Professionals of Arizona (EPAZ)

Environmental Scholarship Program

Encouraging students who have invested their future in the environment.

EPAZ will award up to $8,000 in scholarships to students in graduate and undergraduate environmental programs in Arizona.

To qualify, you must:

- Be an undergraduate or graduate student in an Arizona environmental program.
- Be pursuing a career in the environmental field.
- Have a minimum GPA of 2.5 and making satisfactory progress.
- Be a full or part-time student for the 2016-2017 academic year in an Arizona environmental program.

(Please note that if you are not currently enrolled in an academic program then you will need to wait and apply for this scholarship opportunity once you have been enrolled in the eligible program)

If you meet these qualifications, complete and return this application by Dec. 31, 2016.

"To Promote Leadership in Environmental Management through Education, Advancement and Application of Science & Technology and Building a Strong, Connected and Engaged Membership of Environmental Professionals"

EPAZ members come from industry, environmental service companies and the regulatory community. Every year, EPAZ sponsors the annual Gatekeeper Regulatory Round-Up Conference and also holds monthly luncheon meetings with environmentally related topics and guest speakers. EPAZ members strive for the following objectives.

- Provide community outreach opportunities for our members to promote environmental stewardship.
- Encourage and facilitate the interchange of information among members, other professional and technical groups, and government entities through our monthly luncheon meetings, annual conference, annual golf tournament and other networking events.
- Connect and help cultivate Arizona current and future environmental professionals through educational outreach, the EPAZ scholarship program and awareness of employment opportunities.
