

Senior Hydrogeologist / Environmental Professional

Hydro Geo Chem, Inc. - Phoenix, AZ

Hydro Geo Chem, Inc. is a small, established environmental consulting firm with 40 years of experience in hydrogeological evaluation, site characterization, remediation system design, landfill services and similar projects. We are seeking a well-qualified candidate for a senior-level hydrogeology, environmental science, or engineering position in our Phoenix, Arizona, office. This full-time permanent position includes benefits such as 401K, medical, and dental. Pay scale is competitive and dependent on experience.

Responsibilities

- Manage diverse environmental projects, including characterization and remediation
- Provide technical support/analysis for all phases of project work
- Write reports for submittal to private clients and state regulatory agencies
- Perform marketing/business development, including putting together winning proposals
- Help with management of Phoenix office and mentoring of professional and technical staff

Qualifications

- MS in Geology, Hydrology, Environmental Engineering, or similar discipline
- 15+ years of relevant experience, including project management
- Arizona Registered Geologist or Professional Engineer, or ability to obtain
- Sound understanding of groundwater flow and contaminant transport, geology, water chemistry, and geochemistry
- High level of technical writing and communication skills
- Honest, self-motivated, inquisitive personality
- Mining experience a plus
- Water resources and production well experience a plus
- Some experience working on Arizona WQARF or LUST projects is preferred

Interested candidates should email resumes to Abra Bentley (abrab@hgcinc.com)
Company info at www.hgcinc.com